

FIRST AMERICAN CONSULS TO GET OUT OF MEXICO

United States Not to Be Represented at Durango Or Torreon

TWO KIDNAPINGS

Villa May Concentrate His Forces Hereafter in Sonora

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 21.—Bringing the last of the American and foreign consuls from the north Mexico districts of Torreon and Durango City, American Consul Cohn of Durango and Consul Agent C. A. Williams of Torreon are expected to arrive at the border late tonight or early tomorrow. Their train is said to have left Torreon Monday.

These are the first of the American consuls and agents to leave their posts in compliance with the advice of the state department. American Consul Marion Letcher of Chihuahua has not notified his intention, while Consul Edwards at Juarez has declared he would stay at his post across the Rio Grande from here.

Americans Kidnaped

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 21.—Two Americans are reported to have been kidnaped by bandits at Santo Domingo, near Villa Ahumada, eighty miles south of Juarez. The names of the men are given in messages here as Fuller and McCabe. The message information indicates they were taken from Fuller's home. Fuller is married; his wife was left in her home.

Carranza Stronger

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Conditions in Mexican territory controlled by General Carranza are rapidly becoming normal according to advices to the state department from American Consul Blocker at Piedras Negras. Telegraphic communication, which for many months has been paralyzed, now is open to Mexico City.

The activity of General Villa's forces is being watched with considerable interest. According to official information, he has ordered a general withdrawal of his forces toward Juarez, the purpose apparently being to transfer them to Sonora. The Villa agency here emphatically denies reports that this mobilization of Villa troops at Juarez had any sinister aspect with respect to relations with the United States. As a precaution, however, Acting Secretary Breckinridge of the War department, after a conference with President Wilson, ordered the Seventh Infantry and the Fourth Artillery regiments from Galveston to strengthen the garrison at El Paso, Texas, bringing its full strength to two regiments of infantry, a regiment of cavalry, and twenty-eight pieces of artillery, a total of about 4,000 men.

In the district east and west of El Paso, Major Funston has in all about 14,000 men, while in the vicinity of Brownsville, he has 5,000 men. The twenty-eighth infantry has been left at Galveston and may be ordered to San Antonio, Texas, so as to be available at either Brownsville or El Paso, according to conditions may require.

General Villa, it is understood, intends to concentrate his men in Sonora and wage vigorous warfare against General Calles, the Carranza commander.

CALLES RETREATS FROM MAYTORENA

Villista Success Is Result of Yaqui Indian Aid

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 21.—The first victory of the Villa forces over Carranza troops in several weeks, was reported to headquarters of the southern department of the United States army here today in an official report of Nogales, Ariz.

The report indicates a sweeping victory of General Maytorena over General Calles, including the death of twenty-two officers. No mention is made, however, of the artillery which Calles brought up two months ago, when he besieged the Villa forces in the Mexican town of Nogales, and it is therefore presumed the Carranza troops were able to save their guns.

The report reads:

"All information here indicates Calles in full retreat on Cananea and Naco. After the close of fighting on the 19th instant, Calles commanded all railroad transportation and worked all night hauling his army to Cananea. Twenty-seven trains were found to be loaded with Calles' army, of which twenty-two were officers and to have captured 100 horses and large quantities of arms and provisions."

Report of Flight

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 21.—Forty wounded Carranza soldiers are en route into today from the battlefield where General Calles' army is reported to be fleeing from the attacks of Villa forces. The injured probably will be brought to Agua Prieta tonight and application may be made to the United States officials to allow them to proceed across the border, where they can receive better care.

Carranza agents here assert that General Calles' headquarters still remain at Piedras Negras, seventy miles east of Nogales, but also state he may be hiding in Agua Prieta. His former headquarters, because of the menace of Villa troops reported en route from Chihuahua.

TWO AMERICANS ARE KIDNAPED BY BORDER BANDITS

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 21.—R. P. Fuller, manager of the Santo Domingo ranch, near Villa Ahumada, Chihuahua, and Foreman McCabe of the same place, have been kidnaped by "Colorado" bandits, according to a message received here today. Details are lacking. Fuller is a brother of F. B. Fuller of Los Angeles.

SANTA BARBARA ADOPTS PLAN OF CITY MANAGER

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 21.—By the vote of 787 to 429, Santa Barbara today adopted the manager-commission form of municipal government. The vote was extremely light, as the total registration is more than 6,000. The charter adopted today must be referred to the state legislature before going into effect.

WEALTHY WIDOW ADOPTS PASTOR OF BAPTIST CHURCH

ASHLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Rev. Arthur R. Blackstone, pastor of the Baptist church here, has been adopted by a wealthy widow, Mrs. Aurelia Ferguson, and made her heir.

His beneficent estate is estimated at $100,000.

The minister retains the name of Blackstone. He is a young man with a family. To forestall criticism, he announced the news of his adoption from his pulpit.

GERMANS LOCATE SUBMARINE BASE ON CHANNEL ISLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Substantiation of rumors that German submarine bases had been established in English waters was brought here today by Frank S. Peck, of Ithaca, N. Y., a cattle breeder who owns a breeding place on the Isle of Guernsey. He said that four months ago British naval authorities had diagnosed that period had been secreted on the unfrequented Guernsey coast, and that German submarines had by this means replenished their supplies of fuel. As the result of the watch that was kept forty persons of German origin were arrested.

Mr. Peck also said that the British were trapping submarines in the vicinity of Guernsey by means of steel nets and that he knew personally that twenty-eight had been thus captured during five months. Mr. Peck arrived on the Minnehaha from London 13 days.

CREDIT LOAN IS NEARLY SETTLED

Pro-German Banking Houses to Have Share in It

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Borrowers and lenders of the vast loan sought in America on behalf of Great Britain and France were said tonight to be in virtual accord on all details of the proposed loan, except three. These, it was said, were not of prime importance. Formal announcement of the success of the negotiations is expected within three or four days, and possibly within forty-eight hours.

Persistent reports were current during the day that the entire matter would be settled tomorrow and that a formal announcement might be expected within forty-eight hours. This was said to be a bit premature, but there was unanimous confirmation that both parties to the proceedings were very nearly together in their plans.

More progress was said to have been made today than on any other two preceding days. A rough inventory of what was accomplished, it was said, would read about as follows:

Members of New York's so-called pro-German banking houses will help float the loan.

Munitions of war no longer enter into the topics discussed. While it cannot be guaranteed that they will be excluded from the loan's operation, it is the present tentative plan to continue paying for them by shipments of gold and American securities from London and Paris to New York.

The size of the loan has been definitely agreed to, subject, of course, to eleventh hour revision. It will be less than $500,000,000, probably $700,000,000, or thereabouts.

Five Years to Run.

The notes issued for the loan will run five years.

These notes will carry a conversion privilege, entitling the holders to surrender them at maturity, if desired, for joint Anglo-French government bonds bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, and covering a period of probably twenty years, redeemable, however, at the option of Great Britain and France, before maturity, and at the conclusion of a term not as yet disclosed.

Other powerful financial interests, it was said, also were willing to subscribe to the Anglo-French loan. This report was strengthened by the presence of J. P. Morgan & Company.

STRICT ORDER TO SUBMARINES TO AVOID LINERS

German Government to Give Passenger Ships Benefit of Doubt

U. S. IS INFORMED

Basis for Settlement of Arabic Case Is Hoped for

BERLIN, Sept. 21, via London, Sept. 22, 5:06 a. m.—Commanders of German submarines have been given strict orders, it has been learned authoritatively, that in cases of doubt as to the intentions of liners, they are to take the safe course and permit the ship to escape, rather than run the slightest risk of error.

This order supplements the instructions as communicated to the Washington government by Ambassador von Bernstorff on September 1. There is reason to believe the new regulation is already known to Washington, and it probably was embodied in the message of instructions sent the German ambassador a few days ago.

It is understood here the United States already has been informed that various officers of the submarine which sank the Arabic agreed, from observations taken while the submarine was on the surface and through the periscope while it was submerged, that the Arabic was planning an attack. Nevertheless, officers concerned may be found willing to admit that the Arabic in reality, was acting judiciously, in spite of the suspicion attaching to her behavior and changes of course.

There is reason to believe the settlement of the controversy may be reached along these lines.

CHINESE SUBSIDIZE PACIFIC STEAMERS

Freight Tonnage Still Short and American Business Suffers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Disastrous effects on American trade in the Far East of a continued shortage of freight tonnage on the Pacific are predicted in a report on the freight situation by Consul General George E. Anderson, at Hongkong, China, made public today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. The report indicates that Japanese shipping lines, which virtually control the Pacific trade, will continue to discriminate in favor of Japanese shippers in apportioning space for steamers.

While no definite announcement has been made, it is well known by officials of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce that negotiations are now nearing completion for the establishment of a Chinese-American shipping line in the Pacific, which will to some extent relieve this situation.

The new line which is to be financed by American capital will receive a subsidy from the Chinese government and its ships will fly the Chinese flag.

"The most uncertain element in the entire situation," says the consul general's report, "is the question of whether or not the vessels of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company will have to be taken off the trans-Pacific run as a result of recent legislation in the United States."

ASK HUGHES BE RETAINED HERE

Methodists Satisfied With Their Bishop On Pacific Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Assignments of pastors in the Napa, Oakland, Sacramento and San Francisco districts were announced today at the closing session of the sixty-third California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. The General Conference committee was requested by resolution to assign Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes as resident bishop of San Francisco for the four years beginning in May, 1916.

ANTHONY COMSTOCK DIES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Anthony Comstock, secretary of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, died at his home in Summit, N. J., tonight after a brief illness. Mr. Comstock, while on his vacation ten days ago, contracted a cold, which later developed into pneumonia.

MRS. BURKE DIES.

REDONDO BEACH, Cal., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Anna Maria Burke, former Countess Anna Maria von Rothenburg of Germany, died here today at 85. About one year ago she was married to Thomas Burke, lifelong friend of Colonel William F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill." She has been a resident here for a number of years.

HEAVY WAR TAX IN ENGLAND LEVIED ON IMPORTS

Free Trade Theories Are Given Up Because of Struggle

MOVIE FILMS

Larger Income Must Give Up One-third to Government

LONDON, Sept. 21, 5:55 p. m.—The greatest war budget in the world's history was introduced in the House of Commons today by Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, as another step toward financing the war, which is now costing Great Britain nearly $25,000,000 daily.

Military requirements and changed methods of warfare have increased overnight a additional expenditures, which had not been reckoned even in the comparatively recent estimates of David Lloyd-George, the influential minister, necessitated in this budget, the third since the outbreak of hostilities, the most drastic and far-reaching taxes in the history of the country, and involving even free trade.

Hereafter automobiles, bicycles, musical instruments, gramophones and the like will be taxed at 10 per cent, and velours, though, as Mr. McKenna explained, the objects of such taxation are "purely temporary and without regard to a permanent effect on trade," being primarily designed to discourage imports and thereby the foreign exchange situation.

Spirits and beer, which have been the object of such agitation, remained untouched by the new schedule. The principal blow fell on incomes, the existing tax on incomes not only being jumped 10 per cent, but its scope widened so as to catch even working men earning less than $14 weekly. The very wealthy must contribute to the government more than one-third of their revenue. The 1 cent mail will be abolished entirely and the weight heretofore carried in the mails for 2 cents will be reduced. The rate on telegrams, which has been 12 cents for twelve words, is increased to 13 cents, and there is also to be a proportionate increase in telephone charges.

The sugar tax, though largely increased, will mean only an extra penny per pound for the consumer. For the sake of all sugar it is now regulated, but the royal commission, which will reduce the price to refiners and dealers.

General debate on the budget is yet to be held, but it was apparent that McKenna's suggestions were received with a certain amount of approval. The chancellor said tonight that he would have occasion to call on the country for another war loan.

COAL BARON PICKS COAL IN HIS MINE

Rockefeller Dons Overalls and Works With Miners in Colliery

PRIMERO, Colo., Sept. 21.—John D. Rockefeller Jr. slept in a coal camp tonight. After a busy day of inspection, in the course of which he swung a pick in the rockiest mine and ate lunch on the porch of a rustic mountain cabin under towering peaks at Stonewall, the Standard Oil magnate late in the afternoon reached the Primero camp. Tired out, Rockefeller announced that he would spend the night with the men. Before retiring, Mr. Rockefeller ate dinner in the miners' boarding house, then spent the evening talking with the men who had just come from the underground workings.

Rockefeller's day of inspection began at the Federal mine at Valdez, about fifteen miles west of Trinidad. There he donned blue overalls and jumper and trudged through two or three miles of narrow tunnels. Once Rockefeller borrowed a pick and chopped away hard, until sparks of coal came rattling down to the floor, to his immense delight.

From Valdez, the Rockefeller party motored to Stonewall, a summer resort, fifty miles west of Primero. Mr. Rockefeller was guest of honor at a luncheon given by J. J. Radford, chairman of the state committee, which expended $150,000 of the Rockefeller Foundation money for the relief of unemployment after the coal strike was called off. After the luncheon, Mr. Rockefeller addressed the party, referring to the relief work. He said:

"You gentlemen have expended this money in a way that may well be taken as an example by charitable organizations all over the world. You have given no man a penny if he was able to work for it. The men you have aided were allowed to earn every cent they received. This magnificent road, on which we have come from Trinidad, is proof that the work done by them was profitable, and that they need not be ashamed of having accepted their wages."

TOO MANY PEOPLE IN PORTO RICO

Authorities Are Planning to Encourage Emigration From Island

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Plans for the stimulating emigration from Porto Rico to improve industrial conditions there were discussed with President Wilson today by Arthur Yager, governor of the island, who declared the population in Porto Rico is so dense that many cannot earn a living.

Governor Yager suggested negotiating agreements with Cuba and other West Indian countries permitting emigration of natives from Porto Rico to those countries.

The president and Governor Yager also discussed the bill to give citizenship to the Porto Ricans, which will be urged by the administration at the next session of congress.

BAN ON MINNESOTA CATTLE.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 21.—The State Livestock Sanitary Board has issued an order, effective immediately, barring all cattle shipments from Minnesota, fearing spread of the foot and mouth disease from the latter state.

LABOR LEADERS ASK RECOGNITION OF FIRST CHIEF

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor today authorized President (Timothy) L. Ryan to draft a statement in its behalf urging recognition of the Carranza government in Mexico as the authoritative expression of the best interests of the Mexican people for self-government.

VON MARCZYNSKI TO SUCCEED DUMBA AT WASHINGTON

RUSSIA, Sept. 21.—A dispatch says that Kajetan von Marczynski, former Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Rome, has been selected to replace Dr. Dumba as ambassador to Washington.

Kajetan Morrey von Kayser-Merc served as Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Rome from June of 1910, to August of last year. In March of this year he returned to Rome as representative of his government in the unsuccessful negotiations with Italy in regard to territorial concessions by Austria, which preceded Italy's entrance into the war.

IS NOT ANGRY ON DUMBA'S ACCOUNT

Austria May Reply to United States On Munitions Question

VIENNA, Sept. 18, by courier to Berlin and thence to London, Sept. 21, 1:28 a. m.—The recall of Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, cannot have any possible effect on the existing good relations between Austria and the United States, according to assurances given the Associated Press by a high official, speaking for the government.

Thus far no report of any nature has been received from Dr. Dumba, and it is assured here that because of the difficulties of communication, he will not be able to make a report in person. Until such a report is available, the government has no information concerning the affair further than what has appeared in the newspapers, it is stated, and feels compelled to exercise restraint. Despite this, however, the official referred to, explained the government's attitude as follows:

"The Dumba incident cannot have any influence whatever on the good relations of the two nations. The recall of Dumba is a purely domestic affair, and the friendly and cordial relations may remain unchanged to the fullest degree by the Austrian government."

"The American government undoubtedly considered itself in good faith bound to request the Austrian government to recall Dumba, and the recall of Dumba is a purely domestic affair, and the friendly and cordial relations may remain unchanged to the fullest degree by the Austrian government."

The correspondent mentioned the fact that other officials in Austria, government circles had indicated to him their feeling that Dr. Dumba, insofar as he warned his countrymen against assisting in the making of munitions, only did his duty.

"That is certainly true," was the answer. "Should we deny that our duty is to warn our countrymen against assisting in the making of munitions? We have done so, and we will continue to do so."

"If, as reported in the press, Archibald was an old friend of Dr. Dumba, it was understandable that the ambassador, in view of the great difficulties of communication, might have been without giving the matter a second thought."

"The correspondent asked how the American answer to the Austrian protest concerning the export of munitions had been received."

"The reply was: 'Naturally, there are wide differences between our view and the American standpoint. The matter is still under consideration and it is possible the American note will be replied to.'"

After the job.

The correspondent learned that there was no lack of candidates already for appointment as ambassador to Washington. The press was not permitted to refer to the affair in any way until last Wednesday, when only the New Free Press published with a short comment the American note and the letter written by Dr. Dumba to Baron Burian, the Austrian foreign minister, which was taken from James F. J. Archibald. The other papers published the news on the following day without a word of comment. Since then, the affair has not been referred to.

The friendly tone of the American note has made a most agreeable impression everywhere.

TART COMMENT ON WILSON IN DUMBA LETTER

Austrian Ambassador Hopeless Because President Is Self-Willed

LANSING "WEAK" More of Archibald Correspondence Published in London

LONDON, Sept. 21, 6:30 p. m.—On the papers found in the possession of James F. J. Archibald, the American newspaper correspondent, when he was apprehended August 30 at Falmouth, while proceeding from New York to Rotterdam, seventeen are described as having been made public and the other seventeen as being "insufficient to warrant publication."

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, in one letter, says Archibald "is proceeding to Germany to collect material for lectures in the United States in the interest of the German cause."

In a letter addressed to Mr. Archibald, Count von Bernstorff says:

"I have heard with pleasure that you wish once more to return to Germany and Austria after having promoted our interests out here in such a zealous and successful manner."

Count von Papen, the military attaché at the German embassy in Washington, in a letter to a Berlin friend, said:

"Mr. Archibald is going to Germany and Austria to collect new impressions from the point of view of the strictly impartial journalist he always has been."

RUSSIAN ARMY IN BAD POSITION; IT MAY BE CAUGHT

Allies Alarmed By Advantage Gained By Kaiser's Forces

GREEK AFRAID

Bulgarian Mobilization Ominous for Balkan Entente

LONDON, Sept. 21, 10:10 p. m.—The German encircling movement against the Russian army, which evacuated Vilna, has appreciably intensified and lightened, and with the retreating forces virtually without rail communication, their retreat seems to have reached the most critical juncture. There is increasing misgiving in England, with regard to the outcome of the maneuver.

The latest Berlin official communication shows important advances by Field Marshal von Hindenburg's right wing, as well as progress by Prince Leopold of Bavaria on the center.

"The only development from the point of view of the Allies, as an offset to the continued rush of the Germans in the east, is the news received from Paris, that French troops have crossed the Aisne-Marne canal, a claim which Berlin concedes. The British front, which has been so quiet for weeks, has been hammered by the German artillery, but, according to British official report, prompt retaliation by the British balanced the score."

Has 100,000 Men

ANGERS, via Paris, Sept. 21, 19:55 p. m.—Bulgaria is reported to have mobilized 100,000 men. Several cavalry regiments are said to have left Sofia for unknown destinations. Other Bulgarian troops who have been mobilized, appear greatly disturbed over the situation.

Angry With Bulgars

PARIS, Sept. 20, 4:50 p. m.—Dispatches from Sofia, Bulgaria, announced the mobilization of troops made up of residents of Macedonia, has caused another complication to be introduced in the Balkan situation, which already was tense, through the presentation by the king of Bulgaria of the ultimatum requiring Bulgaria to define her attitude.

The mobilization of Macedonia has caused surprise and indignation in official and unofficial circles here, as it is said the whole purpose of the present negotiations between the allies and Bulgaria and Serbia is to determine whether Macedonia belongs to Bulgaria or Serbia. That Bulgaria should mobilize Macedonia while the fate of Macedonia will be decided, is declared in the highest Serbian-Greek quarters to be an affront to the allies and the other Balkan states.

Bulgarian Feeling

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 19, via Berlin in London, Sept. 21.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The government organ, discussing the conference between leaders of the Opposition and King Ferdinand, says:

"The leaders of the Opposition did not behave properly in the presence of the king."

Concerning the conference, the Opposition organ says:

"We are unable to give a comforting report on the conference. The government is going its own way, instead of what we desire."

The city of Sofia today celebrated on a grand scale the thirtieth anniversary of the union of eastern Rumelia and Bulgaria. Many civic bodies participated in the parades, in which the military element was confined to battalions and about two infantry companies.

Although over 20,000 persons participated in the celebration, everything passed off in orderly fashion.

King Ferdinand, Queen Elzabeth and Prince Cyril, entered the city in front of the royal palace and were cheered by the populace, who then proceeded to the Levski monument, where other speeches were made. Later other addresses were made at the Battenberg mausoleum and before the Emperor Alexander monument.

Two Spies Sentenced

LONDON, Sept. 21, 12:15 p. m.—Two more spies have been convicted by court-martial. Official announcement was made today that a man and a woman, names were not given, were found guilty yesterday of attempting to communicate information concerning the fleet.

The man was sentenced to be shot. The woman was sentenced to ten years in jail. Both will be permitted to appeal.

Linkmoor Is Sunk

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The British steamer Linkmoor of 4,018 tons gross, built last year and owned in Sweden, has been sunk. Her crew was landed.

Macedonian Troops

SOFIA, Sunday, Sept. 13, via Berlin and wireless to Saville, N. Y., Sept. 21.—It is learned that the number of Macedonians who joined the Bulgarian colors on Friday is about 55,000.

From reliable sources it is reported that traffic on Bulgarian railroads has been suspended temporarily.

Costly for Swiss

PARIS, Sept. 21, 12:21 p. m.—Switzerland's expenses for mobilization up to September 1 amounted to $2,000,000. President Motta made this announcement in a speech today to the National Council of the Swiss Confederation as reported by the correspondent at Bern of the Havas Agency. The President stated that if the war should continue ten months (Continued on Page 2)

CHEAPER MONEY FOR THE FARMER

Steps Taken to Organize National Association to Bring Rural Credits

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Initial steps toward organizing a national association to bring about rural credits for farmers of the United States were taken today at a mass meeting at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, which was attended by many delegates of the International Brotherhood of Farmers and the National Farmers Congress.

Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, former ambassador to France, was suggested as the head of the proposed association. A committee of four was named to discuss details of organizing the association, which will be formed with a view of forming on a plan whereby the farmer will be the chief beneficiary.

The committee consists of Morfimer Fleishback, banker, of San Francisco; Prof. Edward Mead of the University of California; C. E. Grunsky, civil engineer, San Francisco; and C. M. Vowles, real estate dealer, San Francisco.

Herrick, who was the principal speaker at today's meeting, talked of rural credits from the viewpoint of a banker. He favored a credit system under state supervision, but without state aid.

James D. Phelan, United States senator from California, said he believed a Government agency must be employed to bring about cheaper money for the farmer, and that in this endeavor to aid the farmers of this country, the people must enlist the assistance of state or Federal governments. Senator Phelan said banking interests could not be looked to as an aid to farmers, as that plan had been tried and found unsuccessful.

The meeting, called at the conclusion of the meetings of the irrigation congress and the drainage convention to give the delegates and members opportunity to hear prominent speakers on the subject of rural credits, was presided over by Chester H. Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican. Mr. Rowell said the purpose of the meeting was to bring the gap between the financial interests and the farmer, to finance the man who owns a farm and to assist the landless man who has no capital.

My informant further gave me to understand he has not yet played his last trump, namely, a refusal to import meat to England under the circumstances. He—that is to say, the above named slaughtering houses—control the Argentine market. At the present moment, they are paralyzed here also by the action of the British admiralty, for the latter has commandeered most of the English freight ships intended to transport meat from Argentina.

Of England stood face to face with the danger of not being able to get any meat from the United States or Argentina, she would soon give in.

"What the immediate result here of making cotton contraband will be, is hard to say. The anger of those interested in cotton will be enormously increased, but on the other hand, the fear of the threatened confiscation may make the leading of the cotton trust so yielding that they, against their better judgment, may agree to the sale of the greater part of the supply en bloc to England, who would be in a position in the future to control the whole cotton market and, on peace being declared, to force on the whole world this essential raw material."

(Signed) "I. Dumba."

Copies Received

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Photographic copies of all the important documents taken from Archibald reached the state department by mail today. Cabled summaries of them were before President Wilson and Secretary Lansing when they determined to have the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, recalled.

Revelations in Dr. Dumba's letters to Foreign Minister Burián, followed by his admission in a personal interview with Secretary Lansing of plans for creating disturbances in America, naturally led to the request for his recall.

The letter of Count von Bernstorff to Secretary Lansing was briefly summarized by Mr. Lansing at the time of its receipt in a statement issued on behalf of the ambassador.

Meeker Comments

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Later tonight Mr. Arthur Meeker, referred to by Mr. Dumba in his correspondence, made the following statement:

"We have received thousands of letters suggesting such action on our part, from persons who I presume are unfriendly to the cause of the Allies, but never have given them consideration, and I never so stated to 'Dr. Dumba,' or anyone. Possibly with him—the wish was father to the thought. His imagination probably supplied the balance."

"As a proof of its absurdity, I might mention that the first seizures occurred last October, and we are doing business with all of the Allies every day to the full extent that orders are allotted to us, and further, that we have had, and still have, every confidence that when our case finally is adjudicated by England, we will be accorded fair treatment and be paid in full."

STRUGGLE OVER FERRIS MEASURE

Organize Water Power Conference Against Federal Control

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Delegates from thirteen states attending the Western States Water Power Conference, which began this day session here today, were divided into two distinct camps tonight on the question of federal control of national resources.

The conference was called in opposition to the Ferris bill, providing for a leasing system of water power sites within the public domain, but the meeting was hardly under way before it was indicated that the larger subject of state control versus federal control, was to occupy most of the attention of the delegates.

"The question involved in the settlement of the question of who shall control the development of the resources of the states are, in the judgment of many, the most vital and important questions to our country that have been raised since the civil war," declared Clay T. Dawson. "The proper solution of this question is for the federal government to turn over to the states the title to all the remaining lands within their borders."

Those opposing the Ferris bill and federal regulation of the public domain were in complete control of the convention and elected Governor William Spry of Utah as presiding officer.

It was demonstrated that the federal administration will not be content with anything less than a measure to come before Congress embodying the principle of federal control of state owned waterpower. This was brought out in the address of Clay T. Dawson, commissioner of the general land office, and representative of the secretary of the interior, Mr. Graves, and Mr. Merrill, Governor Lister of Washington, declared for compromise, and Commissioner Tallman urged the same thing.

The feeling of the delegates opposed to the Ferris bill in their attitude that the interests of the West will never permit of compromise, with the principle of federal control, was expressed by ex-Senator Samuel H. Piles of Seattle.

Committee Struggle

Rumors of a storm came with the opening of the session when Senator Reed Smoot of Utah wanted Chairman Spry to name the resolutions committee and Senator T. J. Walsh of Montana protested that each state delegation should select its own representative on the resolutions committee. Senator Walsh was supported by Governor Ernest Lister of Washington. Senator Smoot, urged that if Chairman Spry was competent to appoint a credentials and on order of business committee, he was also competent to appoint the resolutions committee. And he inquired why there should be such a question raised.

"Because," replied the senator from Montana, "the resolution is the thing." Just when the opposing senators were preparing for the fray, T. J. Piper of Portland moved that the method of selecting the resolutions committee be left to the discretion of the committee on order of business. This latter committee effected a compromise, recommending that the chairman of the conference appoint on the resolutions committee the representatives selected by the delegation of the several states participating.

Silk for Sandbags

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 21, via London, 12:45 p. m.—Silk and velvet is now being utilized by the Germans for making sandbags for the trenches in Belgium, according to the correspondent at Roulers of the Telegraaf. This measure has been necessitated because the supply of jute has been exhausted.

GETTING READY FOR SPECIAL STATE ELECTION

Sample Ballots Are Being Mailed to Nearly 37,000 Voters

Polls Will Be Open From 6 in Morning Until 7 at Night

Work was started yesterday by D. M. Barnwell, county clerk, and R. D. Marshall, registrar of voters, to mail out nearly 37,000 sample ballots of the propositions that will be voted upon at the special state election on October 26 when the constitutional amendments are placed before the people. The work of addressing the envelopes has been going on for some time and will be completed by the last of this week or the first of next week.

The election officers have already been appointed by the board of supervisors and the election proclamation will be sent to the inspector of each precinct to be posted as soon as received by the county clerk. In this county 660 election officers will be employed for the special election. There will be one judge, one inspector and two clerks.

Voting places will be provided in all of the 185 precincts in the county and as near as possible the same voting places as used in the general election will be used this year. The county clerk will announce the city polling places within the next few weeks.

Under the new law the polling places will be open from 6 in the morning until 7 at night.

Voters who have moved out of their precinct since the last general election must either register or ask for a transfer in order to vote at the coming special election. The register closes on September 25 for the special election.

RUSSEL HEARING AGAIN POSTPONED

The new date is October 9. The continuance granted yesterday was the second, the former one occurring over a month ago.

RECOVERY FROM GRIP

The form of influenza, popularly called grip lasts but a short time, is seldom fatal but causes suffering and misery out of all proportion to its importance.

The reason is this. When the acute stage of the grip is passed there often remains a neurasthenia that persists for months if not properly corrected. The patient is nervous, irritable, suffers from lack of appetite and vigor and feels indisposed to work or even to enjoy life. Warmth and quiet alone give comfort and these not for long at a time. Sleep is restless and does not refresh the nerves which are always at high tension.

The best way to correct this aftereffect of the grip is to build up the blood and there is no better blood builder than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

As soon as the revitalized blood courses through the system you are aware of its soothing influence. Gradually the color returns to the pale cheeks, appetite and digestion improve and you are on the road to health.

The free book "Building Up the Blood" contains a chapter on the after-effects of the grip. Send now for a copy to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50.

Eat Right

Health and Energy Largely a Matter of Diet

Whenever an athlete is being trained for a contest of strength, endurance or skill, he is placed upon the strictest kind of a diet. It is a well-established fact that in order to be in the pink of condition it is absolutely essential that you eat right.

This also holds true to only a slightly less degree in every walk of life. No matter whether you are a lawyer, a doctor, a business man or a stenographer, you cannot realize all the possibilities of your position unless your diet is such as to produce the vim and energy required.

One of the very best foods for keeping one fit—full of snap and pep—is that whole wheat cereal known as the country over as "force."

Here is a food that furnishes all the nutriment necessary for building and sustaining the human body. It nourishes without stimulating; is palatable and easily digested; and will send you out into the world keen and fit for the day's battle.

Force can be obtained at all good grocers. It is delicious in itself, but can be served in a variety of tempting forms—with berries and cream, etc.

Lime-Loss in Tuberculosis

In the Journal of the American Medical Association (January 17, 1914) was the following:

"It has been many times stated that in tuberculosis or in the tuberculous stage an increased amount of calcium (lime) is lost both in the urine and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be one of the developments of tuberculosis."

If tuberculosis is due to lime loss, the success of Beckman's Alternative in its treatment may be due, in part, to the content of a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Always we have urged consumptives to avoid strictly "flesh" food, but after some effective remedial action is needed, in many cases of apparent recovery Beckman's Alternative seems to have supplied this need. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try. From your druggist or direct from Eckman Laboratory. —Advertisement.

ALLEE FOUND GUILTY; JAIL TERM FAVORED

Jury Agrees On Compromise After Deliberating Four Hours

After deliberating for more than four hours, the jury in the case of F. A. Allee, accused of criminally assaulting Nora Michaels, aged 16 years, yesterday brought in a verdict of guilty but recommended that the defendant be sentenced to the county jail in place of the penitentiary. Sentence will be pronounced today before Superior Judge Church. It is reported that the recommendation for a jail sentence was made as a compromise to induce two of the jurors to vote for conviction. It is claimed that the jury stood ten to two for conviction, but that the two were finally won over after the recommendation was made.

When You Wash Your Hair Don't Use Soap

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain distilled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Beards, mustaches and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Sewing Circle With Much Whispering

Before the stork arrives there is much to talk about. The comfort of the expectant mother is the chief topic. And there is sure to be someone who has used or knows of a splendid external help, Mother's Friend.

It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in and has a most pronounced effect as a lubricant. It soothes the nerves, enables the muscles to expand naturally, relieves strain on the ligaments and thus acts at ease any undue strain on the organs involved. And it does this with perfect safety. Expectant mothers thus go through the ordeal with comparative ease and comfort. Expectant mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" speak in glowing terms of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and a freedom from many other distresses.

"Mother's Friend" at any drug store or they will gladly let you try it. Write today to Bradfield Regulator Co., 401 Lamar Bldg., Oakland, Cal., for a highly instructive book of great value to all expectant mothers. It contains a valuable expectancy chart, rules on diet and is brimful of suggestions that all women will appreciate.

FIREBAUGH FIGHTS TO REMAIN AS CITY

Claim Majority Voters of Town Favor Incorporated City

Trial Started to Decide Whether Election Was Legal

The hearing of the suit brought by E. P. Ogilvie, former defendant for Miller & Lux, in the name of the State of California to have the town of Firebaugh disincorporated was started yesterday before Judge Church and will be resumed today with the taking of testimony for the defense. Ogilvie alleges that the town was never legally incorporated and that attempt is being made to collect municipal taxes and license taxes for stores. Numerous technical points were raised by the case yesterday. It is alleged that the proper boundary description was not given when the incorporated city limits were decided upon, that the exact population of the city was not given and that the election proclamation, although posted, was not ordered posted by the proper authorities. Other allegations regarding the proceedings, which the election was held are made as reasons for declaring that the town is not incorporated.

Attorneys appearing for the city of Firebaugh opened their defense yesterday afternoon and contended that the town was duly incorporated and that the vote of the qualified voters. It was pointed out that a registration of 101, seven votes were cast against incorporation, while fifty-five were in favor. It was declared that had the voters, who did not vote, cast their ballots against incorporation, the proposition would have failed any way. This evidence was introduced to show that the majority of the voters of Firebaugh were in favor of an incorporated city, regardless of whether it was finally proven that the incorporation was illegal.

While it was not in evidence yesterday it is claimed that the suit was instigated by Miller & Lux because of differences that employees of the company had with the city officials of Firebaugh. It is asserted that the employees objected to inspection of the town and was offered for sale and that there was also a disagreement regarding license tax for the stores.

U. S. Webb, attorney-general, is named as one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, but he was not in court yesterday. F. H. Sharr, local secretary of Miller & Lux, was represented in court by Carl E. Lindsay, Edward F. Treadwell and D. Treadwell, Miller & Lux' attorneys from San Francisco, were the other lawyers for the plaintiff.

Theodore Roche, R. G. Retallick and O. L. Evans appeared for the city of Firebaugh.

Fourth Member Gives Self Up to Authorities; Hearing October 6

Nicholas Manjelli, the fourth member of the alleged band of Italian raisin thieves, which was broken up Monday by Sheriff McSwain with the arrest of three of the men, gave himself up to the custody of the authorities yesterday. To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs From Face

(Beauty Notes)

Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delicate paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered talc. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off, and the skin washed to remove the remaining talc. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is delicate you buy.

WE SHOULD PROTEST

For purposes of present action, we must discount such of the reports of Armenian atrocities as come through English sources. For, however true these reports may be, Germany will not believe them if their authority is English, and it is only to or through Germany that effective appeal could now be made.

Nevertheless, while Germany would not believe even Lord Bryce, America can believe him. We know the man, and we know that even the war fever would not induce him to send to America an appeal based on doubtful or manufactured reports. And the facts which we will believe on his statements can doubtless be established for German consumption by other evidence, more direct and neutral. If then it shall appear that Armenian massacres incomparably worse than any in previous history are now going on; that half a million Christians are being either killed outright or driven into deportation camps where they will die; that the able-bodied men are being herded into alleged armies; the old men and women killed or driven to death; the young women sold into Turkish harems; and the children either allowed to die or sent also into slavery—if these things are true on anything like the scale now reported, it is the duty of America, as the only Occidental neutral now able to do so, to make solemn protest against this attempted extermination of a people, and firm demand that it cease.

That demand would of course be addressed ostensibly to Turkey, and copy would be laid before Germany, Turkey's ally, "for information." But of course actually Turkey will stop these things; if Germany says she must, and will not stop them if Germany binds on her theoretical right not to interfere with the "internal affairs" of Turkey. On the fiction it is not Germany's business—nor, perhaps, ours. On the facts, it is our business to protest and Germany's business to act.

STILL REACTIONARY

In his Los Angeles speech, President Taft, once more insisted that if any Progressive were to be permitted to return to the Republican party, they should be required to leave their principles behind them. "What I insist upon," he said, "is that no concessions should be made involving a giving up of Republican principles and an embracing of Progressive principles in a Republican platform." (Applause). A victory on such a straddling platform would be worth little for the country. The party would divide after it attained power, as it did in 1912. "We can stand defeat, if we know and believe in the cause for which we are fighting. Defeat is not the worst thing that could come to a party or to a man." "Make no compromise with the leaders of a disintegrating party." Stand by Republican principles and those who sincerely uphold them. Have none of the crazy-guilt of the Progressive platform, which would destroy constitutional government and our national representative system.

These were the utterances which were applauded by a Republican mass meeting in Los Angeles, and they were part of a speech in which President Taft had opposed the initiative, the referendum, the recall, the direct primary and the Progressive legislation of California. Both by his authority as a leader and by the applauding support of the rank and file, such of the Republican party as was there represented, was committed outright against any compromise with Progressive principles, or any admission to its membership of former Progressives, unless these Progressives would recant and renounce their Progressive principles and would consent to be represented by candidates who had never been tainted with these principles.

For our part, we quite agree with President Taft. We do not believe that the best of Republicanism has now come to represent could ever be united with Progressivism, and we agree with him that if such a union were temporarily accomplished, the two factions would inevitably again separate—the next time perhaps by the secession of President Taft and his followers, into a new "Constitutionalist" party.

But while we think President Taft is correct, there are thousands of Republicans who think he is wrong. It is not our business to advocate Republicanism, but of those who preach it. We hope, in fact, it will not be repudiated, and that the conduct of the Republican party will continue to be such as to kick out of it such Progressives as may cherish the idea of re-entering it. But while it is not our business to oppose this contention, it is decidedly the business of those Republicans who still think the Republican party can be made Progressive to make this repudiation in the blindest possible way. They know that the only hope of even temporary Republican success is to make the Republican party Progressive. President Taft indeed concedes this, but he announces that he does not desire success on such terms. Those Republicans who disagree with President Taft have an obligation resting on them which at least in this Los Angeles meeting no one seemed to have any desire to meet.

WILL THEY PAY?

"It is much better to discuss financial propositions in perfectly cold blood," says California's chief organ of cold-bloodedness.

Well, let us then discuss this war loan cold-bloodedly.

It is a financial proposition, and in cold-blooded finance the only question is, Will it pay?

The allies want a billion dollars, and they offer no security for it but their own government bonds. The present government authorities promise that their successors will pay. The bonds are worth exactly what these successors shall regard this promise as worth.

If the future may be judged by the past, the security is good. It is more than three hundred years since any English government has repudiated the debt of any English government, and more than two hundred years since any French government has done so. Even the French Revolutionists respected the financial obligations of the government they had overthrown. These two nations are the richest in Europe, and they are the two which in modern times have enjoyed the longest and most unbroken national history. If any government promise is inviolable, certainly these two nations offer as sound a security as any.

But while England has never repudiated a debt, it is at least a century since it has paid the principal of one. The investing class has been satisfied with the perpetual guarantee of interest, and any individual who wished the principal for some immediate use could always get it by selling it to another investor. The bondholders, inheriting a perpetual right to live off the taxation of other people's industry, constituted a privileged investing class—and that was the governing class of England. So England has not yet paid the money it borrowed for the Napoleon wars—but it has paid the interest, and has been governed by those to whom it paid that interest. In France the situation has been the same, except that the investors were all the people, and all the people ruled.

But now comes a war that in two years will pile up twice the debt that all the previous centuries had accumulated. The payment of this debt means back-breaking taxation, for centuries, of all the people who shall inhabit the territory now held by the belligerent nations. The only reasons for paying the debt will be respect for the honor of the past and caution for the credit of the future.

Obviously, if these war debts are not paid, the credit for future wars will not be forthcoming. But government, in any of these countries, may come into control of a generation or a class which does not regard the honor of the past as binding, and which has no desire to make possible the financing of future wars. No man can now guarantee even the national continuity of any territory in Europe. France may not be France, and Great Britain may not be Great Britain, when the day of reckoning comes. Least of all can any one guarantee the perpetuity of the present international alliances. England has been at war with France throughout most of the history of both nations, and may be again. What will their joint guarantee be then worth? And it is quite certain that government, at least in England, will come into the hands of other than the investing class. When that class becomes, as under the debt-legacy of this war it must, the hereditary aristocracy of England, with a vested right to live off the taxes of other people's industry, a political revolution to depose that class will of necessity involve a fiscal revolution to repudiate these obligations.

These things may not happen. Even more hopefully, they may not happen within the five or ten years for which these American first-mortgage bonds are to run. But everybody knows that it is then intended to fund these bonds with others. Then, if any of these things ever happen, there will be repudiation.

CHANCE TO MINORITY

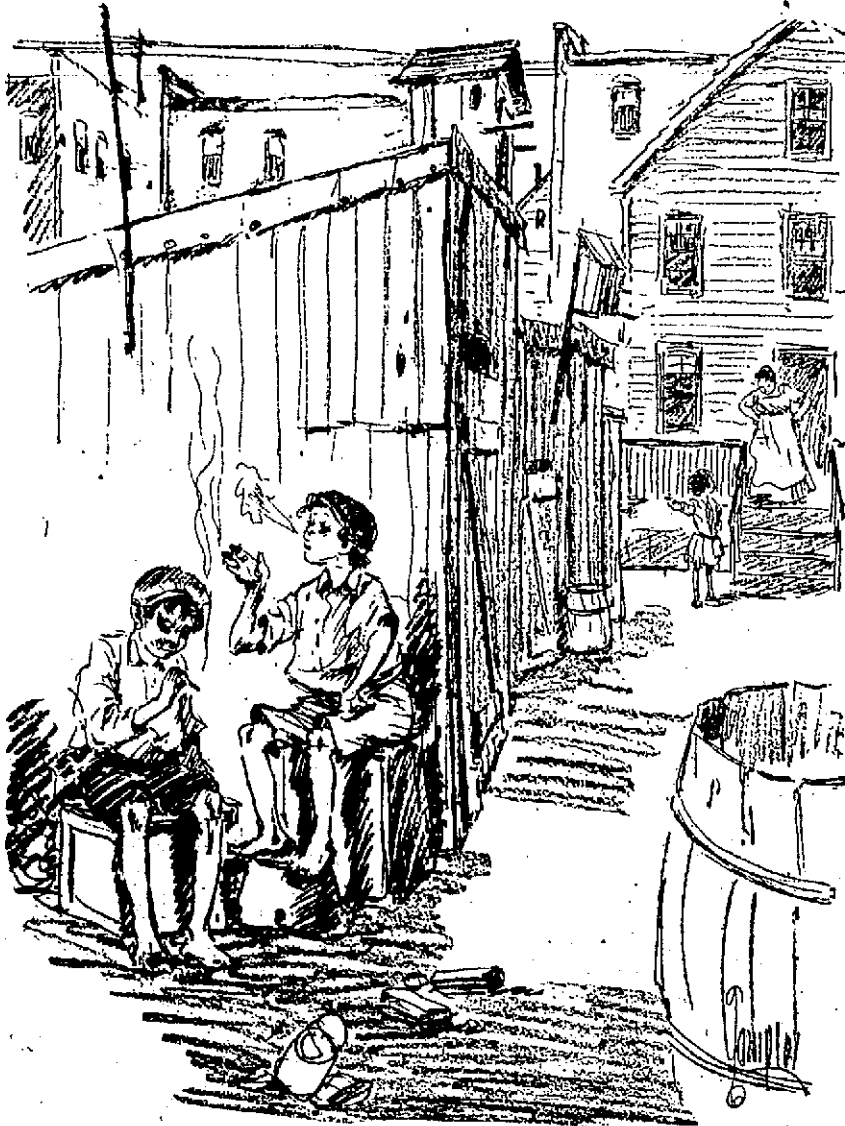

The California Democrats ought to find it particularly easy to adjust themselves to the idea of the non-partisan election law. In fact, their experience with the non-partisan law is already in operation in county elections, must already have accomplished this. For members of a minority party can never get elected except by what amounts practically to non-partisan voting, and they can get elected much more easily when the actual non-partisanship of the voters is not obstructed by any artificial partisanship in the electoral machinery. In other words, it is easier for Democrats to get elected when there is no Democratic ticket. In fact, more of them were elected, at the county elections last year, for this very reason.

This is not a partisan argument for non-partisanship, either. It is not that Democrats should favor non-partisanship because it will help elect Democrats. It is that non-partisanship is right because it opens the public service to all the people, instead of merely to the members of a majority party. Capable citizens ought not to be shut out from opportunity to hold office merely because they happen to belong to the national party which is locally in the minority. Still more important, the state ought not to be limited, in its choice of public servants, to those who can be selected from one-half of its citizenship. With the whole people to choose from, there is double chance of making a good choice. The increased opportunity is good for the state. And it may, quite legitimately, not be unwelcome to the members of the otherwise handicapped fraction of the population.

Woman Was Former Wife of Creator,
Band Leader

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Evidence of a double murder was brought to light today when the bodies of Mrs. Margaret Favar, an actress, and a man partially identified as J. C. Crowell, believed to be a resident of Greenwood, Miss., were discovered in an apartment in the central residential district. The heads of both victims had been battered in with a hammer and the bodies slashed with a razor.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Margaret Favar came to Portland eighteen years ago with her mother from Australia. She was then 15 years old. As a dancer at the Lewis and Clark exposition she created a sensation. Afterward she married Crowell, the band leader. She toured the United States on several vaudeville circuits.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—Because of the sad plight of some of the parties to divorce suits, which has gotten on his nerves during the past six months, Judge Charles Monroe, who has presided over the divorce court here for several years, today asked the other judges of the Superior Court to relieve him. He has set in nearly 10,000 divorce cases during the time he has been on the bench.

BRYAN TO GIVE UP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—A four line "ad" in a local paper today discloses that William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, is done with Washington as a place of residence. The "ad" is as follows:

"FOR RENT—Furnished, California place, Thirtieth and California streets, N. W. Apply at premises. W. J. Bryan."

Calumet Place is the old home of Mrs. John A. Logan and is one of the beautiful residences of Washington. When Bryan came here to be secretary of state, he rented the place, it is said, at $4,000 a year.

A caucus of Liberal members of the legislature declared last night that the referendum should be held in March instead of in December of this year.

The Tramp Steamer

A tramp steamer is the only kind of a tramp for which a use has been found so far. Like other tramps, it has a home, but never goes there. But unlike other tramps it is always working and its nose is seldom painted. Tramp steamers do not have light and white cabins and are not infested with millionaires and chorus girls returning from Europe on their frugal vacations. They are plain, awkward boats, as fat in the bows as a canal boat, and if a vacuum cleaner were turned on them after a trip, they would spit out more dirt than a Vermont farm has. But in hours as a canal boat, and if a vacuum cleaner were turned on them after a trip, they would spit out more dirt than a Vermont farm has. But in hours as a canal boat, and if a vacuum cleaner were turned on them after a trip, they would spit out more dirt than a Vermont farm has.

Nine-hundred and fifty-six miles in an open boat with one day's board in her locker.

The ocean commerce of the world and enable the frugal housewife of America to buy English needles, because they come a cent a pound cheaper. The ocean liner travels back and forth between two ports, until she has worn a furrow in the map. But the tramp steamer plows slowly through the water from Liverpool to Melbourne and thence to Rorotonga, Shanghai, Yokohama, Nagasaki, Hongkong, Japan, Manila, and other freckles on the map, which can only be found by a good geography scholar. Tramp steamers have carried enough wheat to Europe during the last year to feed 50,000,000 people. That shows the foolishness of their name. If they were real tramps they would not be carrying food. They would be handling it from port to port.

There are many thousands of tramp steamers in the world. Some of them are small and some are big enough to carry the crops of a whole county in one cargo. But practically none of them fly the United States flag. This is because the steamer which flies the United States flag has to pay its crew American wages and feed them civilized food. After the crew of an ordinary tramp steamer get over a three-months trip they sometimes go out and become real hoboes for the sheer luxury of it.

Some people think the age of adventure will be over when the last war ceases. But so long as men can nurse rickety old steamers with rheumatic engines and weak backs through winter gales on the five oceans and row 556 miles by pedometer in an open boat with one day's board in her locker, when the said rickety steamer has flopped to the bottom, there will be some variety in life left for those who can't bear comfort and safety.

WOMEN WHO LEAD THE WAY

BY MARIE DILLE

Cora Stewart—Founder of Moonlight Schools

Mrs. Cora Stewart is a truly responsible for the enlightenment of many of the white people of the South as was Abraham Lincoln
for the freedom of the black.
Mrs. Stewart, the founder of the
moonlight schools,
has done more to abolish illiteracy from the hill districts of Kentucky than has any other agency.

The system she has employed has been so unquestionably successful that it has been adopted in twenty-five other counties of the state and has spread into Tennessee. It flourishes there in at least two counties and many more are taking steps to open moonlight schools.

Mrs. Stewart became interested in the illiterate adult in 1911, while she was employed as superintendent of public schools in Rowan county. On her numerous trips through the mountain districts on errands connected with her office she had ample opportunity to observe the mountaineers.
She became convinced that their lack of education was not due to a natural stupidity, as many believed, but to a lack of opportunity. She immediately set about planning a means whereby education might be brought to them without working a hardship by occupying their meager spare daylight hours.

In the fall of 1911 she succeeded in convincing the school board that the school buildings should be kept open during the evenings for two weeks in September. The time was that in which the moon would be brightest, thus making the mountain travel eas-

PRINCIPALS TO

MEET IN FRESNO

Between 200 and 300 high school principals of the state will convene in Fresno November 14. Frederick Liddecke, principal of the Fresno high school, is making the local arrangements. The program is being prepared by Commissioner W. C. Wood of the department of education. The sessions will be held in the auditorium of the high school.

R. Byron, of Fort Worth, Texas, Miss Pearl Millisch, the bride's cousin, of Galveston, Texas, and C. E. Beckwith will be their only guests. Following a wedding journey to San Francisco, they will return to Fresno to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney of Bakersfield, Minn., who have been guests of honor at a surprise party on Monday evening, when a number of friends assembled for an informal evening of music, celebrating their twenty-third wedding anniversary.
An impromptu program was given by Messrs. Wyllie and Hich.

Fritz Kroler, the great violinist, who is to appear in Fresno on October 7 under the auspices of the Fresno Musical Club, is the possessor of three extraordinary violins. One is a rather small Stradivari, not large in tone, but of exquisite quality, which he uses often for recitals in small halls. The second is a (Cagliano), the work of one of the earliest and most famous of the Italian violin-makers who flourished in Florence in the first half of the sevteenth century. The instrument, however, that he uses the most is one made by Josef Guarneri del Geau, which was formerly the property of the great Wilhelm.

This (Guarneri) is one of the finest instruments in existence and it would be difficult to compute its value in dollars and cents. The chances are, however, that if it were put up for auction at Christie's in London it would bring from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars. It is a large instrument with a large mellow tone characteristic of its kind, and Kroler uses it almost entirely when he plays concertos with orchestra. He has other instruments, of course, but these are the most famous.

The Swedish Dietrich Club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs.
J. Mackery at her home, 214 Elfre street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson will leave this morning for San Francisco, where they will spend the next ten days.

"YANKEE FROM THE WEST" AT KINEMA

OPIE READ'S POWERFUL NOVEL PICTURIZED

WALLACE REID and TOM WILSON in "YANKEE FROM THE WEST" FOUR-ACT MUTUAL MASTERPIECE MADE BY MAJESTIC

Four acts, teeming with action and unusually powerful climaxes will be found in the "Yankee from the West," an adaptation of Opie Read's thrilling and widely read novel.

The all-star cast is notable. Scenes Owen and Wallace Reid are just about the best looking "leads" in the business, while Josephine Crowell and George Seigman have been at the Kinema for the past two years in many fine productions.

"Yankee" Goes West. Turns Bad Man and Is Finally Reformed by Love.

The story tells of a young Harvard graduate, who goes west to seek his fortune, but falls by the wayside, the commits a robbery and train hold-up, is betrayed by his companions, but manages to escape.

Here the cross strikes like a bolt of lightning. His betrayer shows up and starts to ruin the chap who has tried to reform. He finally, after a terrific battle encounter, decides to give himself up to the railroad president, who pardons him and permits his return to his wife and family.

George Seigman's "An Alien" or "The Sign of the Cross" at the Kinema for the Week End.

The most human, the most truly real story ever picturized is the gripping "Sign of the Cross." In addition to the highly sensitive bits of Italian work by Dehlin, the action teems with stupendous crowd scenes. This is one of Dehlin's particular fortes—these Eastside ruckus of romantic looking Italians with a sprinkling of nondescript dentists and nationalists. The whole tale turns on a stopped ditch-digger and his "cousin" brother, Ross, a Freepian known of Dehlin's vaudeville sketch that appeared in Fresno several years ago with Anna Held's road show.

Suffice it to say that the picturization is stupendously amplified. Instead of just that one scene in the florid's shop.

MAX FIGMAN ATTRACTS AT LYRIC THEATER

Max Figman, who stars with Lois Meredith in "My Best Girl" at the Lyric today.

Max Figman of stage fame and Lois Meredith, one of the most beautiful of modern picture actresses, will continue at the Lyric today in "My Best Girl," a romantic drama peculiarly adapted to their unusual talents. The picture, "My Best Girl" is a splendid blending of romance, comedy and drama. The story is stirring, the action is rapid and the scenes are well conceived.

With this picture the Lyric is showing "You Know Me, Al" Ring W. Lardner's successful comedy that has taken the fans by storm. The recent publication of the stories in the Saturday Evening Post is proof of their worth.

"Who Pays?"

"Blue Blood and Yellow" is the title of the seventh of the "Who Pays?" dramas coming to the Lyric Thursday only. "Blue Blood and Yellow" is the story of a girl who, having aristocracy and wealth, and how she found her golden idol to have clay feet, also of a young man whose blue blood was tinged with ochre, and of another who studied the stars and learned of Hell.

With this picture there will be a Pathe program, including a hand-colored scenic and a Pathe-American comedy.

"THE CLANSMAN" WILL PLAY FOR TWO WEEKS

EVERY NIGHT AND SOME MATINEES AT WHITE

Miriam Cooper in "The Clansman"—Now at White Theater

What is acknowledged by everybody who has witnessed it to be the most wonderful picture ever produced, "The Clansman," by David W. Griffith, the world's foremost moving picture producer, is now holding audiences spellbound at the White Theater.

The Clansman will be the attraction at the White all this week and the week following, with special matinees on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, evening performances. Tickets at 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90, 95, 1.00.

Twenty-five thousand soldiers, including five cavalry and fifty companies of artillery appear in battle scenes. Shows shelling and burning of the city of Atlanta. Destruction of Atlanta by Sherman's army fully depicted on the screen. Exact reproduction of the fall of Petersburg, with trench works, breast works and artillery in position. In some positions as in original battle, ground colored and trenches and breast works laid out under the direction of veteran commissioned army officers who took part in the original conflict. Military maneuvers executed according to United States army military tactics.

Three West Point army officers commanded with Mr. Griffith in arranging battles. Many pieces of artillery used in the battle scenes were furnished by the United States government from cannon used in the Civil War.

For the first time in the history of battle scenes, explosive shells are used. They are hurled from the same three mile range that were used in the Civil War. These shells had to be of specially constructed explosives and cost $2500 each. 500 were used in battle scenes.

Reels of the famous Ku-Klux of the South re-enacted. Dazzling brilliant battles between Ku-Klux and negroes in which thousands of both factions participated.

An entire city, including brick sidewalks, the old Southern houses with their colonial pillars, churches and stores were constructed to duplicate the antebellum period, and to lend realism and atmosphere to the picture.

A quaint cabin village, showing the negro quarters on a Southern plantation, was built for "The Clansman." The negro life on the old plantation is faithfully reproduced.

The negro House of Representatives at Columbia, S. C., in session immediately after the Civil War, is shown in exact duplicate of the original chamber as it existed in 1870, through photographs and data supplied by the Columbia State daily newspaper.

The reconstruction of President Lincoln by Wilcox Booth is one of the principal features. The interior of Ford's open house is a replica of that playhouse at the time the assassination took place, with the same character in the stage, going through their parts.

"WITHIN THE LAW" PROVES DRAMATIC SUCCESS

Blanche Douglas With Post Players—At Theater Fresno

Two performances of "Within the Law" have been given at the Theater Fresno by the Post players company.

and at each presentation of this gripping New York spectacle, a real sense of appreciation and admiration for the individual's who composed the cast, pervaded the theater, as well filled at each performance.

Miss Palmer Wins Praise

The chief of interest in this gripping drama of life in New York comes about Miss Palmer, a role most capably filled by Miss Marie Palmer, leading lady of the Post players.

Miss Palmer is charming as the innocent girl, hardened by three years in prison for a first she did not commit, but possessed with a desire to live without brooding a simple law, and with a faithfulness for doing things loyally.

Playing opposite to Miss Palmer, Herbert Lovell scores a big hit as a yobster, ruthless, kept to the straight and narrow path for a time at last by the influence of noble Mary Palmer.

Well Balanced Company

Other members of the cast demonstrated the rare quality of the Post players, and the perfect balance of the company.

The acting of Miss Blanche Douglas as "Sarah," a woman whose character in the first act, was completely worthy of recognition, and Miss Evelyn Hamble brought down the house with her witty story of slings.

"Within the Law" will be the attraction for the balance of the week.

Members of Los Palmas Lodge No. 556, meet at Masonic temple at 1:30 p. m. today, to enjoy in their last meeting place the remains of our late deceased brother Herman H. Gray. All Master Masons are requested to attend.

Howard Sisters, International Entertainers—At Plaza Tonight

Tonight the Plaza will offer an entire change of program, consisting of the best vaudeville talent obtainable. No effort has been spared to bring exceptional acts to this popular outdoor playhouse for this week's end.

Murphy Raymond, famous as a ventriloquist, will open the bill with a novelty act that all are sure to appreciate, for this young lady possesses a talent that is almost eerie.

Smith and Williams appear in a new show act crammed full of songs and dancing. Both of these clever young men are well known as being the best in their line and are giving a hearty reception wherever they have appeared.

A refined singing act has also been billed in as the Angelo Duo. This is the kind of an act that will be most appreciated by true lovers of the best in music. The Howard Sisters will be the main feature act tonight. They are international entertainers with a wide reputation as entertainers—extraordinary. Their act calls for a special drop curtain, and all the way through they introduce novelties that are sure to prove highly enjoyable.

Open air playhouse still contrived to be most popular amongst "great" patrons, as the evening temperature is such that the open air is the most comfortable.

URGE PRESIDENT TO WORK FOR SWAMP LAND DRAINAGE

Congress Is Memorialized By Irrigationists at San Francisco

OFFICERS CHOSEN

Watson of South Carolina President; Stockton Man Honored

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The National Drainage Congress, prior to the election of officers here today, adopted resolutions asking federal reclamation of 50,000,000 acres of swamp and overflow lands, and providing for the appointment of a committee to wait upon President Wilson to urge upon him executive recommendation to Congress of reclamation legislation.

Officers elected were: President, E. J. Watson, Columbia, S. C.; vice-presidents—Frank B. Knight, Chicago; D. E. King, St. Louis; General William C. Gargus, U. S. A.; J. L. Craig, Stockton, Calif.; George M. Lehman, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Legislation Is Demanded

"The time is at hand," the resolution memorializing congress of this country, "when the congress of the United States should enact the necessary legislation to reclaim the 50,000,000 acres of swamp and overflow lands, situated in the various states, in order that said lands will not longer remain in their present condition as a menace to the health of the people, to the end that such lands may be utilized to produce the necessities of life, and that the floods, which annually occur throughout this country may be controlled and prevented."

A telegram from Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, to J. L. Craig of Stockton, chairman of the board of control of the National Drainage Congress, was read to the convention. The telegram said:

"The drainage of our lowlands is one of the great problems of this country, which must be undertaken in the near future. I shall be pleased to learn that you have formulated a business-like proposition under which this work can be undertaken."

COUSIN OF BRYAN DROWNS IN MONTANA

THULON, Mont., Sept. 21.—Sheriff Bruce W. Bryant of Deer Lodge county, a cousin of William J. Bryan, and his undersheriff, Charles Madison, were drowned today while fishing near Thulon, in the lake, which lies in the center of an extinct volcano. The two were with their wives, fishing from a raft. They jumped when it began to submerge, in order to lighten the load. The women were rescued.

PREDICT SCIENTIFIC PLANNING FOR CITIES

International Engineers Ridicule Haphazard Work

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—That the American cities of the future will be built by engineers along scientific lines, providing for the health and convenience of the people, growth, sanitation and adequate transportation without danger of congestion, was the prediction made today at the International Engineering Congress.

Stockton, P. Lewis, chief engineer of the board of estimates and apportionment, New York city, who spoke on city planning, ridiculed the haphazard system of building American cities and criticized the gridiron plan of streets as a scientific nightmare.

"The work of city planning," he said, "should be directed by men who do not think the exercise of imagination an engineering crime; men who are enthusiasts, without being doctrinaires."

Mr. Lewis pointed to the cities of Germany as the most perfectly laid out and predicted that the American cities of the future would be laid down by municipal engineers in cooperation with sanitary workers, architects, and landscape experts, and planned with the same care that is given office buildings today.

MUCH ICE OFF ALASKAN COAST

VALDEZ, Alaska, Sept. 21.—An unprecedented amount of ice in Prince William Sound, making navigation at night dangerous, was reported by Captain Charles O'Brien of the steamship Mariposa, which arrived here today. Captain O'Brien said thousands of icebergs from Columbia Glacier are floating in the water and are becoming a menace to navigation. No earthquake has been felt here, and local mariners are unable to account for the immense slaughtering of ice from the glacier.

STEAMER SERVICE FOR PACIFIC TRADE

Dutch Crews Employed; Seamen Act Will Not Affect New Line

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—A new monthly steamer service from Java, Manila, P. I., and Hongkong, China, to San Francisco may be established hereinafter in December by the new China-Japan Line, it was announced today by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Cable advices from the steamship company at Amsterdam received today, said that the company's manager would come here at once to arrange for the service. The proposed arrangement was made for handling through cargoes by the railroads to interior points in the United States. The railroads, it was said, already have agreed to such arrangements. The additional service, however, has been sought by the Chamber of Commerce for several months, since the Pacific Mail announced its new accomplished abandonment of trans-Pacific traffic. Inasmuch as the Java-China-Japan Line, owned by Dutch crews and officers, the seamen's act, effective in November, will not affect it materially, it was said.

FRAUD ALLEGED IN NEVADA ESTATE

Daughter Late Cattle King Sues Big Corporation for Accounting

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Caroline K. Olney filed suit for an accounting today against the Union Land and Cattle Company of Nevada and laid claim to one-third of the stock of the company, which took over the properties of her father, the late T. B. Olney, charged of conspiracy to defraud her of her share of the estate.

A temporary order restraining further transfers was issued by Judge James M. Boyd in the superior court, pending trial of the case. Mrs. Olney alleged that her father turned over his property, said to comprise more than a hundred thousand acres of land, to his son Charles upon condition of an indebtedness of $50,000 was paid, that the son gave her $200,000, and that Mrs. Olney be given one-third of the income from the property.

Humphrey and Moffat, she alleged, furnished the required quarter of a million dollars and with her brother took over the property in the name of the defendant corporation. Later the property was transferred, she said, to the Granite Mountain Investment Company and then to the Anelope Valley Land and Cattle Company. Mrs. Olney said she had received only a bare living from her share.

Ross, the third aspirant for the Republican nomination, had only 6,542 votes.

Governor David I. Walsh, candidate for renomination on the Democratic ticket, had an easy victory over Frederick S. Dietrich of Cambridge.

MACHINERY ARRIVES FOR WORK AT WOODY

Weringer Company Plan to Install Modern Mining Machinery Soon

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 21.—Equipment for the Weringer Mines company at Woody has arrived. According to Harry Cheney, local freight contractor, who went to Woody yesterday to look over the road over which the machinery will have to be hauled, two car loads, totaling 150 tons, will be loaded over the mountain road. The equipment for the copper mine consists of a hoist, two gas engines, air compressor, four air drills, a stoper, and the rest of a complete power plant sufficient for the working of the mine to a depth of 500 feet. The plant will cost from $25,000 to $30,000 when completely installed, and will be modern and up to the minute in every respect. The hoist will be operated directly by one engine. The other engine will be used to furnish the power for other machinery and the ice plant. Shaft No. 2, which is now down 155 feet, will be deepened to at least 500 feet, and sinking will be started as soon as the machinery is installed. Drifting from the 155-foot level will be continued until the ore body is reached, and the shaft will be run out at different points as the depth is secured, causing about 100 feet more drifting. Three shifts of men will be employed.

PATIENTS ESCAPE BURNING HOSPITAL

One Man Seriously Injured At San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Sept. 21.—Sixteen helpless patients narrowly escaped death today when the county hospital burned. One man was seriously injured. Attendants carried the invalids down flame-wrapped stairs and lowered them through windows. There were 175 patients in the hospital at the time.

The back fire of an oil stove started the blaze. Nurses and internes bravely fought the flames, which their efforts kept confined to a pantry and the kitchen ward, which were burned. The remainder of the frame building was saved.

Although burned about the hands and face, Louis Larsen, the chef, aided in getting the patients to the ground. He was standing in front of the stove when it backfired and the flames rapidly shot upward to the floor above, where the patients were confined in the chronic ward.

Larsen turned in an alarm and warned the nurses and internes. Before the first patient could be removed flames and smoke burst through the floor, making the work of rescue difficult and dangerous.

After fourteen had been wheeled to safety, Louis Larsen, the chef, and Mary Wright fastened dampened handkerchiefs to their nostrils and with two ropes dashed into the smoke-filled wards to rescue the two remaining patients.

Fastening the ropes to one cot at a time, they lowered William Taylor and Mrs. Marie Blythe from the windows into the arms of the internes below. Miss Lawson, fearing the flames, then leaped after the cots and was caught. The other two nurses fought their way back into the hall.

Patients in other wards who were able to walk were escorted hurriedly to the yard, while the others were wrapped in blankets and carried.

NEBRASKA IS SENDING POTASH INTO MARKET

Find Commodity in Bed and Water of Lake in State

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 21.—Nebraska may soon be ready to supply the demand of America for potash, the supply of which has been absolutely cut off by the European war. Already a Nebraska concern is shipping carload after carload every week to eastern states, where it is used as the base for farm fertilizers, and the output of the plant is soon to be doubled or tripled in an effort to supply the demand caused by cutting off the German supply.

Reports have been circulated of deposits of potash in Montana, Wyoming, Arizona and several other states, but the Nebraska mine is the first one to actually produce the substance in quantities sufficiently large to pay to ship to the market and sell. Heretofore the entire United States has been forced to depend upon Germany for potash, but the necessity caused by the war has proved so stimulating in its effect that the American potash supply will hereafter come from within the boundaries of the United States and not from Germany.

The Nebraska potash mine is in Sheridan county, near Alliance and about three miles from a railroad. Instead of being in mass the potash is held in solution in the water and in the muddy bottom of the lake. The lake covers 250 acres to a depth of 20 feet, and below the water there lies a stratum of mud from twenty to thirty feet in thickness. Both the water and the mud are strongly impregnated with potash, and it is from this water and mud that the commercial potash now being shipped is taken.

"De un niño no se debe esperar grandes obras."

[Do not expect a child to write Grand Opera.]

Ah, that precious Havana tobacco! I do not fear for it when I see it in the hands of workmen like those in the Van Dyck factory.

Here are no raw beginners.

Rarely does one of these Cuban workmen qualify to meet the Van Dyck standard of workmanship until he has produced between 200,000 and 300,000 cigars.

The workmanship is Spanish throughout—each precious leaf is rolled into the cigar with its tender tip toward the lighting end. The wrapper is put on with the care of Velasquez spotting the highlight into the warm eye of some Spanish señorita.

Not in every factory will you find such care.

To me a Van Dyck is a cherished companion. When to a friend I hand one it is never with a muttered apology.

I do not hope he will like it—I know he will, for would he be my friend if he had not good taste?

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS---For Once Father Had His Wish Realized

PENNANT RACE OF BIG LEAGUE NOW NEAR TO DECISION

Nationals Fairly Within Grasp of Philadelphia; Likely Boston Will Realize Hope—Situation Reviewed

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The pennant races in both the major leagues are near a decision. In fact, it looks as if the pennant in the National League already was fairly within Philadelphia's grasp, while, with the important American League series in Boston nearly over, it seems probable the Red Sox will see the fruition of their hopes.

Chief interest centered in the Boston series, where the lead was at stake when the Detroit arrived. The Red Sox had made excellent preparations for the big event by beating off an attack by Chicago and smothering whatever expectations the White Sox might have of capturing the banner.

Detroit, likewise, was primed for the fray by a succession of victories over the New Yorks, gaining these by brilliant work in a number of hard struggles.

The Red Sox have won two of the three games, with one more to go. Even should the Detroit win that, they will be no nearer the leaders than they were when they landed in Boston. At present they are three and a half games behind, with Philadelphia and Washington still to be visited.

The Phillies' excellent lead over both Brooklyn and Boston in the National League is almost too great to be overcome. Neither of these teams is ready to admit defeat, however, each counting on remaining within striking distance during the western trip and heading off the leaders when they are faced in the closing games in the east.

Brooklyn's Keep Pace. The Brooklynites kept pace with the Quakers during the week, their twelfth win, showing general effectiveness, the two-time victor of the squad being Jack Coombs, who beat the Phillies today, but then on his first appearance in the box against them since he defeated them for the Athletics in the world's series of 1910.

As for the Braves, their double victory over St. Louis yesterday came opportunely to save them from making a poor record for the week, while their success in winning from the Brooklynites for the second place.

St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago and Pittsburgh are engaged in a neat little fight for first division honors, with only a few points separating them. The Reds did the best work during the week by winning a majority of their games.

Pittsburg increased its lead in the Federal League race during the week and looks to be the winner in the Gilmore circuit. Chicago went into second place by taking a double-header from Buffalo today, while St. Louis was losing to Baltimore.

Post Season Series

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—President B. Johnson of the American League looks with favor upon the winners of the world's series playing a post-season series of games at the Panama-Pacific Exposition with a team picked from among the teams of the Pacific Coast League.

Word to this effect came from President Johnson's offices today, together with the expressed opinion that permission to make the western trip probably could be granted as a commendation to the exhibition management. It was announced that a committee from San Francisco, consisting of Bill Lange, Samuel Tucker and William Humphrey will come East soon to arrange the proposed series.

Participation in the world's series will not be granted, according to President Johnson, who said that he

"DARK HORSE" WINS OVER 17 OTHERS IN GRAND CIRCUIT FUTURITY

Mary Putney, Filly Owned by Chauncey Sears Defeats Dorothea, the Favorite; Peter Scott Takes $4,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Grand Circuit racing today over the Columbus track brought to prominence Mary Putney, a year-old filly, that Chauncey Sears of Fall River, Mass., bought two weeks ago from Walter Cox. With Dick McMahon as her driver, the filly took in straight heats the Horse Review Futurity, for which there were seventeen starters. This field was the largest 3-year-old one ever known.

Dorothea was expected to win. The Geers colt was forced to go a long mile in the first heat and finished a fairly good second to Mary Putney, who in the first quarter of each mile stepped away to win by herself, with plenty to spare. Colorado Range earned second money by standing a hard drive that landed him second in the last heat.

Under the system of having six divisions of the money, Peter Scott earned $4,000 out of the Hoster-Columbus $10,000 stake, and did it easily. He was a prohibitive favorite. "Frank the next in favor, was twice second without much trouble. Not since 1906 has the best time in this stake been as slow as it was today. Peter Scott stepped the first heat in 2:07.

2:14 Pace Resumed. When the 2:14 pace, three heats of which were raced Monday, was resumed this afternoon, Edward Geers was driving Hestia H. and W. L. Snow was up behind Patrick M. Neither horse reached Canella. For the fifth heat, the original drivers were allowed to handle Hestia H. and Patrick M. Canella took the heat and the race.

In the 2:08 pace there were four heats, with close finish. Billy Bruno, the champion, was rushed in the first one by Auto Zombro. Then they gave way to Fred Russell Ohio-owned, and a great Western performer this year, and Margot Hal. Three times the latter was outbrashed. Summary:
